RE: Qualifying Charitable Organization Provisional Recertification – Approval

Greetings:

PD Care Connection (QCO Code: 22695) has verified that it meets all criteria to remain a Qualifying Charitable Organization. Your previous provisional status will be converted to a conventional approval on January 1, 2025 and your organization's assigned QCO Code will remain the same.

Enclosed is a certificate acknowledging that your organization meets all criteria to be considered a Qualifying Charitable Organization. You may display the certificate or keep it in a file. This certification does not apply to or exempt your organization from Arizona transaction privilege (sales) and use taxes.

The department may periodically request organizations to recertify their status. Your organization must also notify the department of any changes (i.e. address, name change, primary contact) with the organization. Please also contact us if the organization makes a significant change in the services provided and/or the population served so that we may ascertain whether or not the organization continues to meet the criteria as a Qualifying Charitable Organization.

Thank you for your response to continue as part of the tax credit for charitable organizations.

Sincerely,

Alejandra Garcia
